RULES OF DEBATE

1. GENERAL

The undermentioned rules shall apply to the conduct of all meetings of the Council, its Boards and Committees.

For the purpose of these Rules, the word "member" shall refer to members of the Association.

2. CHAIRPERSON'S AUTHORITY

Whenever the Chairperson rises during debate, the member then speaking shall be silent and resume his seat.

In the case of any remark considered by the Chairperson to be offensive or imputing improper motives, the Chairperson may call upon the speaker to withdraw and apologise.

The Chairperson may call a member to order. If such member persists in being disorderly, he may call upon such member to withdraw from the meeting.

It shall not be permissible to dispute the Chairperson's rulings, or move a motion of dissent from his ruling, on matters of procedure and points of order.

3. DEBATE

Any member desiring to speak shall stand up and address the Chairperson.

If two or more members rise to speak at the one time, the Chairperson shall decide which is entitled to priority.

The meeting may decide that a particular person shall or shall not be heard, provided that a motion of this nature shall not be debated.

No member shall interrupt another while speaking, except to rise to a point of order.

No speaker shall digress from the subject under discussion.

No member shall use offensive or unbecoming words.

During the debate, a member may raise a point of order whereupon the member then speaking shall resume his seat until the point of order has been decided.

It shall be competent for any member to move a motion of dissent from the Chairperson's ruling other than on matters of procedure and points of order. The mover of a motion of dissent shall concisely state his point. The seconder and Chairperson only may then speak to the motion.

At any time during the debate, a member may move "that the question be now put"; provided the Chairperson is satisfied that reasonable time for debate of the original motion has been allowed. The motion shall be put without debate - it need not be seconded. This motion may be applied to an amendment, in which case it is the amendment, which is immediately put to the vote. It shall not be competent for the mover, seconder or any person who has spoken to the original motion or amendment to move "that the question be now put".

If carried, the original motion shall be put to the vote without further debate except that the mover thereof shall have the right of reply; if lost, the debate may proceed.

A member may move the adjournment of the debate to a subsequent meeting. If the motion for adjournment is lost, the mover thereof shall not be allowed to speak again on the question under debate. If carried, the mover shall have the right of resuming the debate at the ensuing meeting and the mover of the original motion shall have the right to reply.

4. MOTIONS AND AMENDMENTS

Any member proposing a motion or an amendment shall state its nature before addressing the meeting thereon.

The mover of a motion shall not occupy more than ten minutes nor any other speaker more than five minutes; provided that the meeting may, by resolution, without debate, grant an extension of time to any speaker.

No member may speak more than once to a motion except with the Chairperson's permission, in explanation or reply, or to ask a question provided that he may speak again on any amendment to the motion.

The mover of a motion's right of reply shall be exercisable at the end of the debate.

The mover of an original motion must get the consent of his seconder, and the approval of the meeting, before making any alteration to the wording of his motion.

Any member (other than as provided in Rule 4.7 herein), may move an amendment to a motion, provided it is not a direct negative of the motion proposed to be amended.

The mover or seconder of a motion may not move or second an amendment to it but may speak on any such amendment.

A particular member may move or second one amendment only to each motion, but may speak on amendments moved by others.

An amendment having been moved, it shall not be competent to move any further amendment, provided that notice may be given of intention to move a further amendment when the previous amendment has been determined. Only one amendment can be considered at any one time.

If there is an indication of more than one amendment to be brought forward the mover of the original motion may elect to reply at the end of the debate on the first amendment.

The mover of an amendment has no right of reply.

A member, who formally seconds a motion or amendment without speaking, may speak in support at a subsequent stage of the debate.

Amendments shall be put to the meeting before the motion is put, and shall be committed to the meeting in the order in which they are received.

When an amendment is carried, the motion as amended becomes the motion before the meeting.

Motions and amendments can be withdrawn only with a majority of those present at the meeting consent. A motion for withdrawal is open to debate, which however, must be confined to the matter of withdrawal.

If, after a motion has been determined, it is considered in the general interest that the matter should be re-opened for discussion before the termination of the same meeting, the meeting may, by unanimous vote, order its recommittal.

5. VOTING

Voting shall be by the voices, or at the discretion of the Chairperson or at the request of any member, by show of hands or by secret ballot.
